2014: Learning optionality and repetition (Invited Talk). International Symposium on Artificial Intelligence and Mathematics (ISAIM) 2014, Special session on mathematical theories of language processing.

2013: Order and Optionality: Minimalist Grammars with Adjunction (Talk). 2013 Meeting on Mathematics of Language (MoL13) Association for Computational Linguistics (ACL) 2013 meeting, Sofia, Bulgaria.

2008: Multiple Multiple Spellout (Talk). Generative Linguistics of the Old World (GLOW) 31: Principles of Linearisation workshop, Newcastle University, UK.

Theses:

In progress*: Adjuncts: learning, locality, and the Chomsky hierarchy* (working title). PhD thesis, UCLA. Committee: Ed Stabler (chair), Ed Keenan, Carson Schutze, and Martin Monti. Winter 2016.

Multidominant Minimalist Grammars. MA thesis, UCLA. Committee: Ed Stabler (chair), Ed Keenan, and Jessica Rett. Fall 2011.

Multiple multiple spellout. Undergraduate honours thesis, McGill University. Supervisor: Lisa deMena Travis. December 2007.

Academic Awards and Fellowships (selected):

UCLA Dissertation Year Fellowship	July 2013-June 2014
NASSLLI 2012 Scholarship	June 2012
UCLA Summer Research Mentorship Program	Summer 2012 & 2011
Diebold Fellowship	2012-13 & 2009-10

Teaching:
Instructor:

2017	Minimalism	Grad
2017	Syntactic Theory	Grad
2015	Introduction to the study of language	UGrad
2015	Computational linguistics I	Grad/UGrad

TA:

2010-2015	Syntax, Phonology, Phonetics, Mathematical Linguistics, Introduction to linguistics	UGrad

Service:

2017	UdS master's programs admittance committees
2017	FEAST speaker series coordinator
2016	McGill Ergativity Reading Group coordinator
2013	UCLA reading group on music and language coordinator
2010-2014	UCLA linguistics librarian
2007	Editing: Michelle St. Amour & Meaghan Fowlie (eds.). Proceedings of McCCLU I.
